

The Red Zone describes an extremely heightened state of intense emotions. When a person reaches the red zone, they're no longer about to control their emotions or reactions.

This is the zone kids are in during meltdowns. Being in the red zone means you're feeling anger, rage, terror, or complete devastation and feel out of control.

How would your child behave in the Red Zone?

- Excessive outbursts
- Fighting
- Shouting
- Irritability
- Acting dangerously
- Lack of control
- Resentful
